

British Values

29th October – 4th November

Rule of Law

Graffiti is a way people express their opinions about the world but it is important to respect the laws of the land and consider where is it presented.

